Hi Amy

I talked with you on the phone last week regarding setting up a date for the Junior Leadership Development students to visit with the commissioners in November. We discussed the following dates: November 9, 10, 29, or 30.

After you determine best dates, I will contact other officials for the students to visit that day. I will also need to verify the date with the school system.

Thank you so much for the help with setting up this program. Please contact me as soon as you have the information. All my contact information is below.
