• Shepherd Memorial Park

This cemetery was opened in July 1954 as a public cemetery. It enclosed the very old graves of the Smith Family Cemetery, most of which are in the Bethany Section. The following is a list of Sections and the direction in which they were recorded.

Beginning at the left of the entrance gate:

Dale	Circle just past Canaan on left
Fairhaven.	Just above Canaan, far left of Dale Circle
Gethsemane	Past the office, left of drive
Hebron	Far left, above Gethsemane
Jordon	Above Illyria and Hebron. Top of the hill
Section "O"	Far back behind Jordon, over the hill
Kashmir	Behind Mausoleums, right hand side
Mausoleums	On top of hill
Montvale	Returning down right side below Kashmir
Lebanon	Square below mausoleums, above Nineveh
Nineveh	Directly behind the office, right of road
Office Building
Eden	Begins in front of office, curves down right side of cemetery to the front section
	Acacia
Lullaby Land	Enclosed in Eden Section
Urn Garden	Right side of Eden, near trees
Bethany	Enclosed by circle of Eden and center drive
Acacia	To right of gate, fronting Highway 25

From Hendersonville take Asheville Highway north for six and a half miles. Cemetery is on left of highway, well marked. The cemetery is in sections, beginning on the left side of the gate, up and around the office, over the hill and back down the right side to the beginning. Graves are not in rows in most sections but are recorded in as orderly a way as possible, sometimes in circles.

Visited in the fall of 1993 by Ray Anderson, Velma Beddingfield, Harriet Hill, George Jones, Evelyn Jones, Bill Barnwell, Weldon Kilpatrick, and Helen Ingle.
