Disc Golf Tournament Takes Philanthropic Turn for St. Gerard House

HC-2018-37

Hendersonville, NC – June 19, 2018

Henderson County Parks and Recreation is hosting a disc golf fundraiser, “Birdies for Autism”, on Saturday, June 30 in Jackson Park to raise money for local St. Gerard House.

“We are excited to be hosting this event because it brings members of the community together, along with the support of local businesses to help out a wonderful organization,” said Parks and Recreation Director Carleen Dixon.

Players will register to play for prizes sponsored by local businesses. There is a suggested donation of $10 per player upon registration. Registration will begin same-day at 9:00 a.m. with the tournament scheduled to begin at 10:30 a.m.

Players are expected to bring their own discs.

Registration is open to everyone, regardless of age, gender, or skill level.

For more information about the tournament, please contact the Parks and Recreation Intern, Logan Rowe, at 697-4884, or email: lrowe@hendersoncountync.org. Comments via this email address or postal mail will be accepted.
