FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Celebrate the 4th of July with Henderson County

HC-2019-26

Hendersonville, NC – July 3, 2019

Expectations are building for Henderson County's annual 4th of July celebration. This year, join the fun at the Historic Courthouse with a visit from Uncle Sam, inflatables and activities for the kids, two live bands and in celebration of the birth of our nation, the always-amazing fireworks display.

The Lonesome Road Band will kick off the celebration at 7:00 p.m. Following at 8:15 p.m. the music of the Appalachian Fire Band takes center stage with some hot bluegrass music. Once the night sky is dark, around 9:15 p.m., the fireworks will begin.

As in years past, there will be a balloon marking the area of sky where the fireworks can be seen. If you can see this balloon from where you are located in the County, then you will be able to see the fireworks display. Just remember to look for the big balloon.

We're looking forward to celebrating America's birthday with you at this free family-friendly event!
