FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Henderson County to Dedicate the Deputy Ryan P. Hendrix Law Enforcement Center

HC-2021-15

Hendersonville, NC – May 5, 2021

On Friday, May 14, 2021 at 11:00 a.m., Henderson County will honor the late Deputy Ryan P. Hendrix by dedicating the Henderson County Law Enforcement Center in his memory. The facility will henceforth be known as the “Deputy Ryan P. Hendrix Law Enforcement Center”. The ceremony will take place in the parking lot of the building, located at 100 N. Grove Street, Hendersonville.

Deputy Hendrix served in the United State Marine Corps for five years before joining the Henderson County Sheriff’s Office in June 2012. He served eight years with the Henderson County Sheriff’s Office, rising through the ranks from Detention Officer to Patrol Detective, and served as a member of the SWAT Team. Deputy Hendrix’s passion for his fellow officers, friends, family and community will be remembered with deep gratitude for years to come.
