FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Henderson County to Host Ecusta Trail Ribbon Cutting

HC-2021-25

Hendersonville, NC – August 16, 2021

The Henderson County Board of Commissioners will hold a brief ribbon cutting ceremony on Monday, August 16, 2021 at the Ecusta Trail Henderson County terminus near Church and South Main Streets. The event will take place at 4:00 p.m. near the railroad tracks with brief comments by the Henderson County Board of Commissioners, among others. An update regarding the recent purchase of the 19.4 mile rail corridor will be given at the event.

Parking for the event will be in parking lot near the United Federal Credit Union. Please be sure to wear suitable footwear for the short hike across the grassy field to the tent near the railroad tracks. In the event of inclement weather (heavy thunderstorms), the event will be moved to the Historic Courthouse Community Room at 1 Historic Courthouse Square, Hendersonville.

Please feel free to contact Kathryn Finotti, Public Information Officer, Henderson County at (828) 697-4809 or Kieran Roe, Executive Director, Conserving Carolina at (828) 697-5777, x. 201 for further information.
