FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Henderson County Historic Courthouse gets a Refresh HC-2025-8 Hendersonville, NC – May 7, 2025

The Henderson County Historic Courthouse, a cherished landmark in the heart of Hendersonville, is set to receive a fresh coat of paint to the entire exterior of the building, including its iconic dome as part of routine maintenance efforts.

The contractor has already primed the dome and will return in two weeks to apply the final finish which will be the original color of the dome.

“The Historic Courthouse stands as a symbol of our county’s rich heritage, and this maintenance project is a necessary step in preserving it,” said John Mitchell, Henderson County Manager.

For more information, contact Mike Morgan, Chief Communications Officer, at 828-707-0571, or email tmorgan@hendersoncountync.gov.
