

Summary

HISTORIC RESOURCES COMMISSION January 22, 2019

The Historic Resources Commission (HRC) met on Tuesday, January 22nd, 2019 at 3:00 P.M. in the King Street Meeting Room at 100 N. King Street, Hendersonville, N.C.

CALL TO ORDER/WELCOME

Susan Sneeringer called the meeting to order at 3:02 P.M. and welcomed all in attendance.

Ray Bryson and Ronald Schultz were not in attendance.

DISCUSSION ITEMS

Motion was made to accept the August meeting minutes by Donald Wilson. Steve Fosberg provided a second and the minutes from previous meeting were approved. Susan Sneeringer and Allen McNeill announced two upcoming trainings for HRC members. Susan Sneeringer updated group on the status of the St. Paul application. There are some items required by the state office for application to be considered complete. There was discussion about whether to add the interior and landscape to the application. Autumn Radcliff stated that the County Ordinance only requires the exterior be designated for historic preservation. Allen McNeill announced the he is taking a new position for Transylvania County and the Eric Warren would take over the staff facilitation for the HRC. Donald Wilson updated the group on the status of the Seven Gables property. Mr. Wilson will complete the architectural description of the property; the daughter of the property owner will provide the historic description. Allen McNeill stated that the application needs revision to include more information. Ray Bryson was not present to give an update for Rugby Grange. Ronald Schultz was not present to give an update for Blake Meadows. Bette Carter informed group that information is being gathered for the Hicks Jones property. Susan Sneeringer received a phone call about investigating two cabins on Edney Inn Rd for possible designation; more information is needed for consideration. Susan Sneeringer made a motion for the HRC to meet monthly. The motion was approved, and staff will revise the meeting schedule. The next meeting will be held on February 18, 2019. Susan Sneeringer adjourned the meeting at 3:56.

Minutes Approved :

 _____