DISCUSSION ITEMS

The minutes for the June 21st meeting were approved with some clarification on a grammatical error.

The Commission began the discussion about the prospect of Shaw's Creek Campground based on information provided by Dr. Kathie Doole from the Henderson Heritage website and from the Historic Johnson Farm. Jacob Compher mentioned the possibility of attending the reunion of the Johnson's for more information.

Bette Carter informed the group about the new priest at St. Paul's and gave the dates for a possible presentation. The Commission decided on presenting the plaque on August 29th.

Susan Sneeringer directed the conversation back to the 100-year list campaign and shared her possible prospects. Knox Crowell shared information on 215 Rhododendron. Christy Thompson discussed the possibility of selected properties in East Flat Rock and other areas. Dr. Kathie Doole shared her report on possible prospects. Matthew Ballance informed the Commission about 150 Crab Creek. Christy Thompson shared information about the former slave church located on Mine Gap Road. The Commission discussed the new development at 2710 Brevard. Matthew Ballance shared the possibility of both 24 Mobile and 115 Grandview. Knox Crowell provided a brief update on 428 Spruce Pine. Matthew Ballance suggested going forward with the analysis of 2022 properties.

Jacob Compher informed the Commission on the prospects of the Board of Commissioners (BOC) approval of becoming a Certified Local Government (CLG) at their August 2nd meeting. Jacob Compher informed the Commission that the BOC would have to approve their request.

Susan Sneeringer went back to the agenda item of the St. Paul's presentation. Bette Carter informed the group that the Commission should bring family and friends with them. The Commission discussed the possibility of media outlets coming to the event.

Bette Carter asked about current members. Jacob Compher noted that the Commission needed to nominate a Vice Chair to the Commission. The Commission discussed term limits and requirements for CLG.

The Commission scheduled the next meeting for August 16th, 2021 at 1:30 P.M.

The meeting was adjourned at 2:53 P.M.
