FROM THE DIRECTOR'S SHELF

A Fond Farewell to Outgoing Board Members

In June we say a fond farewell to two individuals who have served as longtime Library Board of Trustees members.

Candler Willis has served as a valued member of the Board of Trustees for 34 years.

First appointed in 1985, his service has spanned the terms of three library directors - Elizabeth Marshall, Bill Snyder, and myself. He has experienced first-hand the significant growth in the system and the rapid emergence of technology. During his tenure the card catalog was computerized, the Main Library renovated, three additional branch libraries opened, Wifi installed in all libraries, and the digital revolution exploded. Candler has contributed greatly to the success of the library over the years and has remained a strong advocate of its mission in the community. His breadth of knowledge and dedication will be missed. Thank you, Candler!

Tom Orr has served on the Board of Trustees since 2014.

His passion for literature and love for the library has remained apparent throughout his service. Tom actively participated in board discussions, attended library events, and supported and advocated for the library throughout the community. His 5 years of service is appreciated.

Thank you, Tom!

- Trina Rushing, Library Director

FOOD FOR FINES$

In only SIX DAYS, library patrons donated 1,960 POUNDS of non-perishable food items for Interfaith Assistance Ministry.

FEED the NEED

TO KEEP THE CHARITABLE SPIRIT GOING, ALL HENDERSON COUNTY LIBRARY LOCATIONS WILL SERVE AS FEED THE NEED COLLECTION SPOTS.

Many children rely on meals served at school as their main source of nutrition. Henderson County Public School System has partnered with Feed the Need to help support these children during the summer when school meals are not available.

Collections can be dropped off during our Summer Fun @ Your Library program from June 3-August 3.

What better way to instill the importance of community giving than encouraging your child to donate nourishment for their classmates?

RECOMMENDED FOOD CHOICES*

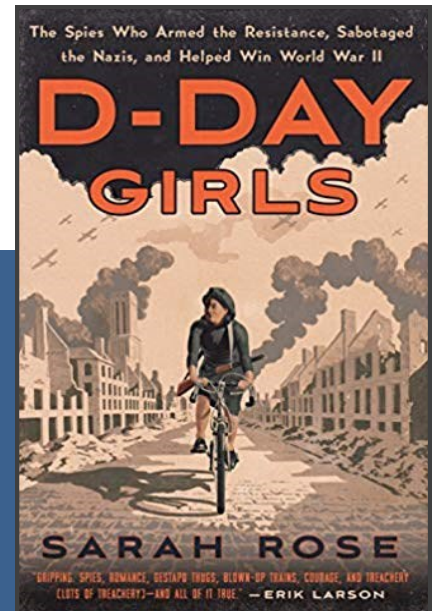

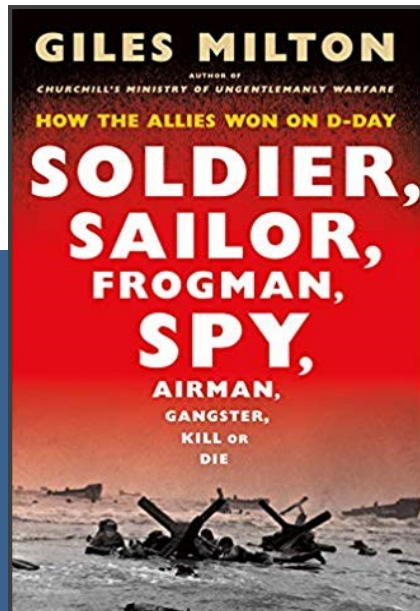

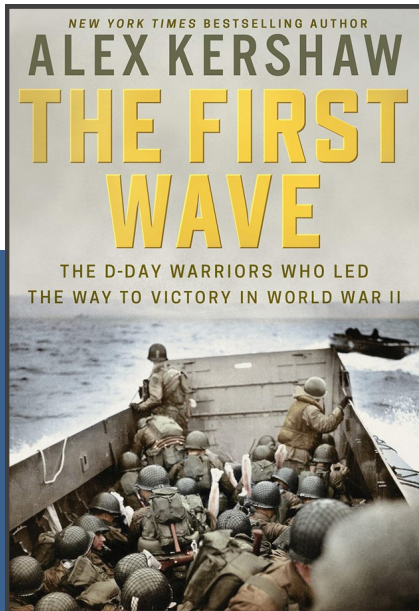

- ◆ Canned/Dried Fruit
- ◆ Oatmeal/Cereal
- ◆ Soups & Stews
- ◆ Beans & Franks
- ◆ Vienna sausages
- ◆ Canned Spaghetti
- ◆ Pudding
- ◆ Crackers

*Please note that food is given directly to children so containers should be easy for a child to open on their own. Pop tops on cans please.

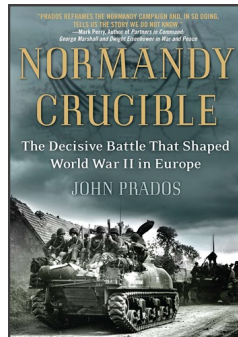

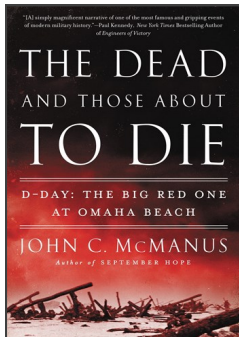

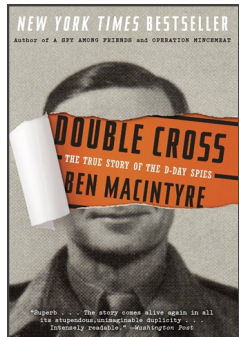

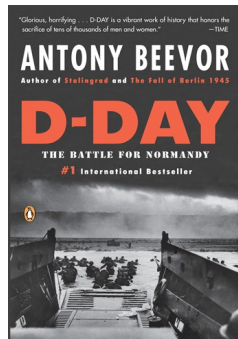

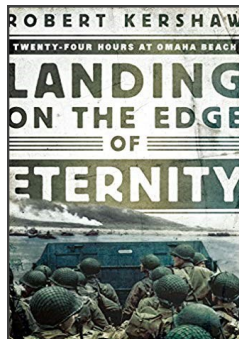

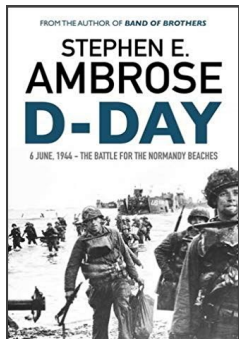

D-DAY COMMEMORATION

June 6, 2019 marks the 75th anniversary of the landing of allied forces in France; an offensive that led to the fall of the Nazi regime less than one year later.

Commonly referred to as D-Day, the sacrifice and bravery of those involved is commemorated in three new titles:

Additional titles include:

Fifth War Loan Drive, Main Street Hendersonville, June 7, 1944.

REGIONAL ROUNDUP

In this column we feature books and authors with regional appeal to Western North Carolina and more broadly, with a strong sense of place in the Southeast. Place any of these on hold at the library through the NC Cardinal catalog.

With summer just around the corner, place your holds just in time for vacation. The Summer House by Jenny Hale has the right mix of feel good romance about two friends fixing up an Outer Banks vacation rental and finding a secret diary. An independent woman does what she pleases in small town North Carolina in De'Shawn Charles Winslow's In West Mills. The Favorite Daughter by Patti Callahan Henry is a follow up to the Bookshop at Water's End, a low country novel about coming home. The Beach House series by Mary Alice Monroe continues with a scene that will resonate with local readers in The Summer Guests when a hurricane sets off an evacuation to nearby Tryon. Not to be confused with another Mary Monroe, the Neighbors series continues with Over the Fence, set in Deep South during Prohibition.

For even more historical books, The Magnetic Girl by Jessica Handler blends genres with an illusionist touring the vaudeville circuit as a magician, based on the real life "Georgia Wonder." In Dawson's Fall by Roxana Robinson, a Charleston newspaperman chronicles a changing society in the decades that followed the Civil War. Call Your Daughter Home by Deb Spera features three women confronting injustice in Depression-era South Carolina. In a book that's generating a lot of interest, follow a librarian on horseback across Kentucky hills and hollers in The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek by Kim Michele Richardson.

In thrilling reads, And Then You Were Gone by R.J. Jacobs explores what happens when a loved one vanishes at a Tennessee Lake, told by a bipolar narrator who suspects foul play. Johnson City author Scott Pratt has a new murder mystery series in gory detail with The Sins of the Mother. North Georgia author Brian Panowich released the anticipated sequel to Bull Mountain, about the sheriff of a region of family clans vying for control of the drug trade in Like Lions.

In lighter mystery series, Rita Mae Brown has a new dog and cat mystery called Whiskers in the Dark. In series debut Cookin' the Books by Amy Meade, someone poisons the local librarian at the annual luncheon and literary caterer Tish Tarragon is on the case. In yet another library mystery, Read on Arrival by Nora Page, a Georgia librarian is willing to go the distance to get a long overdue book back. The closest to home is going to be Murder in the Reading Room by Ellery Adams which features the Biltmore Estate.

Other odds and ends to round out your reading could be the cookbook Smoke, Roots, Mountain, Harvest, or a book of essays about race and reconciliation by a pastor and descendant of Robert E Lee, A Sin By Any Other Name. For short story collections with Southern authors and settings, pick up Staff Picks by George Singleton or Let Me Out Here by Emily Pease.

Thanks for reading!

Adventures abound during Summer Fun @ Your Library. Come check us out!

SUMMER FUN FOR KIDS AND TEENS Youth Services staff are excited to celebrate a Universe of Stories this summer with fun programs for children and teens. Don't miss out on magic, music, science, live animals, stories, yoga, crafts, and more! Check out the Summer Fun Calendar for Children and Teen events at all branches! Children and Teens can pick up a reading card at any branch starting June 3rd. Complete your card by reading or listening to books, graphic novels, magazines, or whatever else you like to read. Turn your first card in by August 3rd to pick out a free book and be entered into a prize drawing. Additional cards completed give you extra chances in our grand prize drawing. Our preschool friends can join the fun, too, by picking up an activity card to earn a free book and entry into a prize drawing. New this year— enter your name each time you attend a program for a chance to win an end of summer prize drawing! Encouraging children and teens to continue reading during summer break helps them maintain and improve their reading skills. Even reading just a little every day can make a difference. Join us this summer as we encourage young readers.

- Lisa Donaldson, Youth Services Coordinator - Samantha Shearin, Youth Services Librarian

SUMMER FUN FOR ADULTS Don't leave all the fun to the kids this summer. The library has dozens of programs for adults as well as reading logs which can be entered for drawings to win prizes at each library location. We're kicking off the summer programs on June 13th at 6pm with a concert featuring well-known storyteller, Connie Regan-Blake. It's no coincidence that our summer theme, A Universe of Stories, corresponds with the 50th anniversary of the moon landing. Themed programs at the Main Library include a sneak peak on June 18th at 2pm of the PBS broadcast event "Chasing the Moon." We'll be showing a 40 minute episode of the series which airs in full on UNC TV on July 8, 9, and 10, 2019. Sign up for one of three chances to test your skills in our "Space Station Escape" room on July 11th and 12th. On those same days, anyone can step into our 1969 living room to soak up the retro vibe and watch original footage of the Apollo 11 moon landing.
